Skylar Lofing, ARTZ 271 Printmaking 1, Frottage Collage Assignment Text

For this project I had a hard time finding any interesting textures around my house. With the most interesting textures I could manage, I made these prints. I'm not suuuuper happy with them but I'm happy to see everyone else's cool prints! My theme remains the same however, I created these collages with what is going on in the world in mind. One to represent broken America, one to represent COVID herself, and one to represent the pink moon the other night!
