What's Happening in February?

Below are some of the events being celebrated in February.

Black History Month

Black history has been recognized since 1926, beginning as Negro History Week and later as Black History Month which is celebrated during the month of February.

Read and view material about the history and lives of African-Americans such as Martin Luther King Jr., Rosa Parks, Frederic Douglass, Harriet Tubman, Barack Obama and many more. A list of resources can be found at the Reference Desk.

Darwin Display at the Library

February 12th will mark the 200 year anniversary of the birth of Charles Darwin whose theory on natural selection is basis of evolution. To celebrate his contributions to the field of science, the Libraries has created a display in the lobby of Renne Library. Take some time and view this exhibit.

President's Day

Celebrated on the third Monday of February. George Washington and Abraham Lincoln's birthdays are also this month.
