Dear Owen Wolfe,

Thank you for contacting Optica Publishing Group.

For the use of material from Owen Wolfe, Tia Sharpe, R. Krishna Mohan, and Zeb W. Barber, "Demonstration of stimulated photon echo isolation using interferometric cancellation," Opt. Lett. 44, 371-374 (2019):

Because you are the author of the source paper from which you wish to reproduce material, Optica Publishing Group considers your requested use of its copyrighted materials to be permissible within the author rights granted in the Copyright Transfer Agreement submitted by the requester on acceptance for publication of his/her manuscript. If the entire article is being included, it is requested that the Author Accepted Manuscript (or preprint) version be the version included within the thesis and that a complete citation of the original material be included in any publication. This permission assumes that the material was not reproduced from another source when published in the original publication.

The Author Accepted Manuscript version is the preprint version of the article that was accepted for publication but not yet prepared and/or formatted by Optica Publishing Group or its vendors.

While your publisher should be able to provide additional guidance, we prefer the below citation formats:

For citations in figure captions:

[Reprinted/Adapted] with permission from [ref #] © Optica Publishing Group. (Please include the full citation in your reference list)

For images without captions:

Journal Vol. #, first page (year published) An example: Opt. Express 19, 2720 (2011)

Please let me know if you have any questions.

Kind Regards,

Hannah Greenwood

Hello,

I would like to include an article that I wrote that was published in optics letters volume 44 issue 2 titled "Demonstration of stimulated photon echo isolation using interferometric cancellation" in my doctoral dissertation at Montana State University. I just wanted to check to make sure I could get approval to include this in my dissertation. More information about Montana State University's manuscript option for dissertations is included in the link below
