Workshop Wednesdays @ Your Library

Sticking around for summer school? Then check out some of the workshops scheduled for May and June. As always, they will be held from 12:00-12:50 in the Library Classroom, which is located in the basement of Renne Library. For more information about these sessions or to register, go to www.lib.montana.edu/instruction/workshops.php

May 6: Podcasting - Learn to create your own podcasts. In this workshop you will edit an audio recording using the free software, Audacity.

May 13: Excel 2007 - Unravel the mysteries of Excel 2007. We will discuss where many of the Excel features are now located in this new interface and learn how to set up formulas, charts and more.

May 20: EndNote Web Basics - The free EndNote Web makes formatting citations and managing bibliographies easy! Learn to import records, add notes, correct and format records in any one of thousands of citation styles.

May 27: EndNote Web Advanced - You have the basics, now let's take it to the next level. In this session, we will import references into Word and much more.

June 3: Word 2007 - Learn some of the most useful MS Word 2007 commands for your citation and other research needs.

June 10 - No workshop scheduled.

June 17: Creative Commons - Let's get creative. Did you know there is a resource that allows you to appropriate music, video, and images with little or no copyright restrictions? Join us to learn more about the Creative Commons.

June 24: Delicious - Join us as we explore Delicious, a social bookmarking service that allows you to create a profile so you can bookmark your favorite sites, share your bookmarks with others, and set up RSS feeds to track websites on a particular topic.
