DO NOT READ THIS!

Did you know that banned books are lurking in your library? You might even spot a few paper and ink fugitives in Bobcat Browse, the collection of new books, magazines, and materials in the comfy Library atrium. Did you catch a glimpse of Harry Potter? The American Library Association names the J.K. Rowling's series as the number one most banned/challenged book from 2000-2009. Works from authors including John Steinbeck, Mark Twain, R.L. Stine, and Judy Blume have also made the list.

This year, Banned Books week is September 21-27. Celebrate your freedom to read at the Bozeman Reads...Banned Books event at 7 p.m. on Monday, Sept. 22, in the community room at the Bozeman Public Library. Or watch The Giver at Gallatin Valley Cinemas. Published in 1993, Lois Lowry's children's book, The Giver, was the 11th most banned/challenged book from 1990-1999.

ONCE A PUN A TIME

A person sent ten puns to friends with the hope that at least one of the puns would make them laugh.

No pun in ten did.

More great puns can be found in Dan Conaway's article, "23 Groans: For the Pun of It." The Daily News. May 2013.

THREE SUPER USEFUL THINGS TO KNOW ABOUT RENNE LIBRARY

1. Printing! Each semester, students have $7.50 for printing credited to their CatCards. Forget your CatCard? Cash printing is available at the Borrow Desk.
2. Need some fuel for studying? Brewed Awakening sells food: sandwiches, chips, and sweet treats...delicious!
3. Forget your charger, calculator, laptop, headphones, or another handy device? Tech reserves are available for checkout. A full list is available on the MSU Library website.
